THE SIGNS OF VICTORY.

The republican insurrection in the Federal house of representatives is interesting, but it is not unprecedented. The democrats had just such a condition to deal with in 1852, when President Cleveland convoked congress in extraordinary session to repeal the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman act, and the dissensions of that time clearly presaged the overwhelming defeat that overtook the democracy in the congressional elections of 1854 and two years later when the presidency was lost.

Many observers of political movements usually ascribe too much importance to the individuals who are prominent. Thus it is we hear what this insurgent is doing or what Speaker Cannon is doing.

As a matter of fact, Speaker Cannon and the insurgents who are annoying him are but incidents of the real fight. "Cannonism" is a creation of the fancy. Old Cannon is not a whit different from the Cannon of the preceding three congresses in which he was speaker, nor are the rules different. Hereafter, the republican membership was a unit in support of the speaker and the rules.

The real insurrection is not in the house of representatives at all. That little affair is but a symptom of the great insurrection among the republican masses. The insurgents who are making noise are hearing from home and their information is that the people are weary of the republican regime. Hence they are raising a ruckus to let their constituents know it is not their fault, that they are trying to do things, but old Cannon and the standpatters won't let them.

If the people at home were satisfied with the general attitude of the republican party toward public questions, the present rules would be all right and old Cannon would be just as popular as when the "boys" lovingly called him "Uncle Joe." It is the same old "Uncle Joe," personally and politically, and he is operating with the same old rules—the rules that with immaterial changes have been in vogue since Speaker Reed invented them twenty-one years ago.

It is the people who have changed and may the Lord be praised for that. We have been waiting, waiting, waiting so patiently for them to comprehend the innate wickedness of republican policies. Through windy blasts we have passed the postoffice and watched the lights glowing bright and warm within, under searching suns we have looked through the open windows and beheld the electric fans whirling around and the cooler labeled "ice water" in the corner of the postmaster's room; at all seasons our eyes have been dazzled by the diamonds gleaming from the shirt front of republican United States marshals and collectors of customs; we have noted the natty uniforms of the silver mail carriers, and often have we exclaimed in the language of the sainted singer of Israel, "How long, O Lord, how long!"

But now our weary vigil is rewarded by a light in the east. As Dr. Holland sang in one occasion, "There's a star in the air, there's a star in the sky." The angry mutterings in the Washington are but the prelude of a glorious anthem of triumph. Soon shall our eager ears hear the gladdest refrain, "The year of Jubilee has come, return ye ransomed sinners home!"

O weary and hungry democrats, arise and gird up your loins! A long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether! One final rally and a rush for the breastworks and the day is ours and from the ramparts of a militant democracy, redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled, we shall hear the song of Deborah and Barak: "So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord; but let them that love him be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had rest forty years."—Houston Post.

A Timely Protection.
Everyone knows the after effects of La Grippe are often more dangerous than the disease. So often it leads to pneumonia, which a weakened heart action makes fatal. La Grippe coughs that strain and weak on the system yield quickly to the healing and strengthening qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. C. W. Goe.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs like strains on machinery, cause liver, kidney, bowels or nerves with out serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters. The medicine tone, medicine Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down while enduring a most severe strain for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c, at all druggists.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to C. Coe of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-slacking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless cure for asthmatic cough, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces you. Trial bottle free. It is positively guaranteed by all druggists.

Coughs That Hang On.

Coughs that start in the fall and hang on until spring are sure trouble breeders unless checked and cured. Bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption are the direct result. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough, stops the hard breathing and heals and soothes the inflamed air passages. Refuse substitutes. C. W. Goe.

Foley's Kidney Remedy is a safe and certain remedy for all kidney and bladder diseases, whether acute or chronic. It is a splendid tonic for middle aged and elderly people and a sure cure for all annoyances and irregularities of the kidneys and bladder. C. W. Goe.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Greenville Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidney's fault. Backache is really kidney ache. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Greenville women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. L. Hayman, 412 W. Lee St., Greenville, Texas, says: "For nearly two years I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint. There was a dull, throbbing ache across the small of my back which kept me in misery and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. Headaches were common and I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Ford & Pennington's Drug Store. I could not get relief. They not only removed the backache but corrected the difficulty with the kidney secretions and improved my health. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a good kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBride Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
